

AUCTION BY KIAH T. FORD & CO.

TRUSTEE'S SALE
OF
VALUABLE APPOMATTOX COUNTY FARM LOCATED WITHIN ONE MILE OF APPOMATTOX COUNTY COURT HOUSE

By virtue of authority vested in the undersigned surviving Trustee under a deed of trust from Randolph H. Wright and Ethel W. Wright, his wife, to L. G. Harrison, William V. Wilson, Jr., Trustees (either of whom was empowered to act), dated the 28th day of July, 1922, recorded in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Appomattox, Va., in Book 23, at page 321, default having been made in the payment of the debt thereby secured, and at the direction of the beneficiaries thereof, I will offer for sale, at public auction, to the highest bidder, on the premises on TUESDAY, THE 21st DAY OF OCTOBER, 1941,

AT 4:00 P. M. O'CLOCK

the real estate in said deed of trust described as follows, to-wit:

A certain tract or parcel of land in Appomattox County, Virginia, about one mile south of Appomattox Court House, on the east side of the public road, known as the "House road", containing 173.18 acres, more or less, bounded by the lines of W. E. Smith, J. F. Parham, Mrs. Annie Hurdley, T. W. Odey and others; being the same land conveyed to said Randolph H. Wright by Joseph O'Brien and wife, by deed dated December 31, 1929, of record in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Appomattox County in Book 21, page 36, to which reference is here made for a full description of the same, together with the buildings and improvements thereon and easements thereunto belonging, LIES, however, about five acres of said 173.18 acres heretofore sold by said R. H. Wright to W. R. Reynolds and conveyed to the latter by deed of record in said Clerk's Office.

The said tract of land, after the auction of the approximate five acres sold and conveyed by said Wright to said Reynolds as aforesaid, contains 168.00 acres as shown on the plat of subdivision of said property made by W. A. Moss, Surveyor, dated November 28, 1922, recorded in the said Clerk's Office in Book 23, page 341, along with the deed from the said Wright to W. R. Reynolds.

The property has on it a "ten-room frame house with bath room, wired for electric lights" and the features in it. Water to the house is supplied from an excellent well. The residence is located on a beautiful site from which the Town of Appomattox can be seen for a mile away. The yard has a number of trees, attractive shrubbery and is surrounded by a hedge. On the property are a five-room turn house, a barn, three outbuildings, and a large, three-story outbuilding. The land is fertile and is in a high state of cultivation. It is excellent grain, grass and tobacco land. The property fronts on U. S. 505 feet at the highway, is close to stores, churches, schools and railway station at Appomattox, Virginia. It is well watered by two creeks and branches, and has ample wood land in it for domestic purposes. Approximately 173 acres by-pass nearest the Town of Appomattox is suitable for subdivision into residence sites.

The property will be offered for sale first in two parcels, one consisting of the residence tract, containing approximately 113.27 acres, and the other consisting of the field nearest Appomattox, containing approximately 54.73 acres, with the right reserved to offer the said property as a whole after the offering in parcels and to accept the best result.

The property is now occupied by tenants. The right is reserved for the tenants to harvest and remove their share of the crops for the current year. The landlord's share of the crops will not be sold under the deed of trust, but all crops for the current year will be removed before December 1, 1941. Seeding potatoes will be given as crops are removed from the land, and full possession will be given as of December 1, 1941.

TERMS: Cash. Taxes and insurance to be provided as of the date of sale.

JAMES-SCOTT WEDDING
RECENT SOCIAL EVENT

Mrs. Dennis Brandon Scott, of Tallahassee, Florida, has announced the marriage of her daughter, Elizabeth Lavonia, of New York and Tallahassee, to Dr. Charles Fleetwood James, Jr., of New York and Appomattox, Virginia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fleetwood James, of Appomattox.

The quiet but impressive ceremony was solemnized at 2:00 P. M. Sunday, September 22nd, in the Church of the Transfiguration (Little Church Around the Corner), New York, N. Y., with the Reverend Samuel N. Baxter, Jr., officiating. Prior to the service a program of nuptial music, including "Ave Maria" (Shubert), "Liebesträume" (Liszt), and the traditional marches were played. The altar was decorated with white chadoras and was lighted by the soft glow of candles.

The bride entered with her uncle, Raymond Martin Hicks, of South Orange, N. J., by whom she was given in marriage. The bridegroom's best man was his father, Charles Fleetwood James, of Appomattox. The bride wore a silver-blue gown, assembled with beaver-brown accessories and a corsage of orchids. Following the ceremony a luncheon reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hicks, of South Orange, N. J. Immediately after the luncheon the young couple left for a wedding trip to Canada.
